IN MEMORY OF

THE SCENT OF THE ROSES

Let Fate do her worst; there are relics
of joy,
Bright dreams of the past, which she cannot destroy;
Which come in the night-time of sorrow
and care,
And bring back the features that joy
used to wear.
Long, long be my heart with such
memories filled,
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled -
You may break, you may shatter the vase
if you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

-Thomas Moore

OUR PRINCIPAL SPEAKS . . .

They come to us ... grammar school graduates, high school students transferring from other towns or cities.

Their parents, or their forefathers were born in many different areas or even countries. They are representative of many different walks of life. Truly, they and their fellow students combine to create BHS, a fellowship.

No two are alike. They have different abilities, different talents, in great degree, or in lesser degree. But they do have certain characteristics in common: they are eager and expectant. They look forward to success and achievement. Many travel long distances each day that they may express their individualities and find pathways to successful futures in the classrooms of Belden High School.

We, of the faculty, and the older students of BHS have the tremendous responsibility of encouraging and nurturing the hopes and aspirations of all students who enter our doors.

Through these doors go forth our graduating seniors. We hope and trust that they have even greater hopes and aspirations - and abilities, than when they entered. To them is extended our warmest wishes for happiness and success - and the reminder that the doors of BHS are always open to them for future visits.

Victor Marlin

FROM THE EDITOR

As we layout and type the final pages of this 1970 Rebel, we sincerely hope that our efforts meet with your approval.

Our goal has been to put into pictures and words, the story of our school, so that for years to come, you will have a record of the four happy, rewarding years spent here at BHS.

As the editor, I would like to say that I have enjoyed every moment I have worked on this yearbook. I apologize for any omissions and hope that you will look on this book as a symbol of a hard-working staff, who I hope have enjoyed the work they have done also.

I speak for the staff as we thank the following:

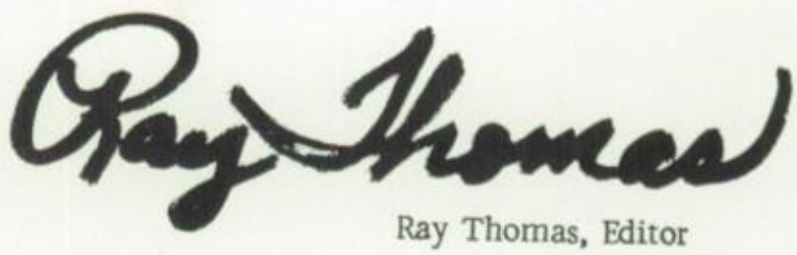
Our advisor, Mrs. W. D. Schumpert, who has patiently coped with our ideas and endeavors.

Mrs. Roger Bean for the use of her lovely home as a setting for our features' section.

Mr. Bill Ramsey, for his brilliant photography and

The faculty and student body for their patience and cooperation.

So here it is. Your 1970 Rebel. I hope that you enjoy owning it, as much as I have enjoyed editing it.



Ray Thomas, Editor
